MAKFI

INTRODUCING MAKFI

The world-class performer Makfi was a revelation as a racehorse in 2010 and will serve his second season in the southern hemisphere in 2012. According to the International Racehorse Rankings, there was no better three-year-old or miler in the world in 2010. A fact borne out by the form of those he defeated during his three-year-old season with Canford Cliffs, Xtension, Saint Nicholas Abby and Goldikova, all winning Gr.1 races in 2011. Seldom do New Zealand breeders have access to a horse of this calibre.

- Winner of his only start at two
- Unbeaten in his first three starts, including victory in the 2000 Guineas defeating Dick Turpin, Canford Cliffs and Xtension
- Winner of Europe's best mile race – the Prix Jacques le Marois, defeating Goldikova and Paco Boy
- Has defeated the winners of more than 30 Gr.1 races, including Goldikova, Canford Cliffs, Dick Turpin, Paco Boy and Fuisse
- Makfi's sire Dubawi has started his stud career in scintillating fashion, having sired 39 individual stakes winners across 11 different countries from his first four crops
- Ranked the Joint Top 3YO in the World in 2010 by the International Racehorse Rankings, and rated above the likes of Zenyatta, So You Think, Black Caviar, Rip Van Winkle, Goldikova and Starspangledbanner
- Received an annual Timeform Rating of 130 in 2010 – 11b higher than his sensational sire Dubawi
- Allocated an International Rating of 128 in 2010, and equal to Epsom Derby and Prix de l'Arc Triomphe winner Workforce
- Makfi is a beautifully balanced horse, standing 16hh

We knew he was in great form and this is just superb. It is quite something to beat Goldikova. Makfi is a calm individual, has exceptional acceleration and goes on any ground.

Mikel Delzangles, trainer, after defeating multiple Gr.1 winners Goldikova, Paco Boy and Fuisse in the Prix Jacques le Marois (Gr. 1).
